ACE NAMES SURESH KRISHNAN GENERAL COUNSEL, MULTINATIONAL CLIENT GROUP

NEW YORK, March 26, 2010 – The ACE Group of insurance and reinsurance companies today announced that Suresh Krishnan has been appointed General Counsel for its Multinational Client Group. In this new role, he will have global legal oversight of the company's multinational products and services initiative. Mr. Krishnan will report to Robert Cusumano, General Counsel, ACE Limited, and will be based in New York.

Mr. Krishnan will serve a critical role in furthering ACE's strategy for managing and servicing multinational businesses and will be an important resource for ACE's North American and international businesses. His work with ACE's international legal team will ensure both a cohesive global perspective and a local tailored approach to legal and other technical matters that impact multinational insurance programs.

"The extensive research, market knowledge and thought leadership on the multinational insurance segment that Suresh has contributed to both ACE Overseas General and ACE in North America have prepared him well for this important role," said Mr. Cusumano. "His understanding of the complexities of multinational insurance programs and his proven track record of achievement at ACE are terrific assets for this position."
